

The Gospel of Jazz comes to the Avenue

Gospel Jazz artist Harold Rayford to record live project at The Jazz Kitchen

(January 12, 2010) Indianapolis, IN- On February 5th, the Jazz Kitchen will be serving up some gospel jazz as Tyscot Records saxophonist, Harold Rayford records his upcoming CD in front of a LIVE audience.

A career first for the Dove Award Nominated artist, Rayford intends to treat audiences with a new sound and a memorable musical experience.

“My expectation is that this live recording will produce a sound that is both fresh and refreshing,” said Rayford.

This recording is a collaborative effort between Old Soul Entertainment and Tyscot Records and will be held at the world famous Jazz Kitchen located at 5377 N. College Ave. in Indianapolis, IN.

Doors open at 5p.m. for dinner. Performances start at 8 p.m., which will be followed by a second set at 10 p.m. Tickets are $5 and can be purchased at the Jazz Kitchen.

For more information please contact: Tyscot Records (317-479-2343 x 302) or Old Soul Entertainment (www.oldsoulent.com).

#

About Harold Rayford

Harold Rayford has released 4 projects on Tyscot Records: Soul Music (1994), Breath of Life (1995), Soul Concern (1997) and the Dove Award Nominated, 2-disc set Always There (2008). In addition to being a national recording artist, Rayford is also pastor of Faith, Hope and Love Family Worship Center in Madison, WI.

About Tyscot Records

Tyscot Records is the oldest African American owned and operated record label in the country. The vision of Dr. Leonard S. Scott and Elder Craig Tyson, Tyscot Records is home to some of gospel music's brightest stars: Deitrick Haddon and Voices of Unity, The Rance Allen Group, Shirley Murdock, The Anointed Pace Sisters and more.